An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In claim 5, on line 1, "prism" has been changed to "prisms".

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to teach an electronic imaging system, among other features, comprising a sensor with a first color region, a second color region, and a third color region; and a prism system comprising a first prism with a first index of refraction overlying the first color region to direct light of first color to the first color region; a second prism with a second index of refraction overlying the second region for directing light of second color to the second color region; and a third prism with third index of refraction overlying the third color region for directing light of third color to the third color region. The prior art also fails to teach a method to form an electronic imaging system comprising the steps of forming a plurality of light sensors on a semiconductor wafer; and forming a plurality of prisms overlying the sensors wherein each prism having an index of refraction, a height and overlying one of the sensors for directing light of a color to the associated sensor.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

1) Ichihara et al 4,926,249 disclose a color image reader system having a plurality of prisms.
